Foreword

THE MAN IN THE GLASS

When you get what you want in your struggle for self,
And the world makes you King for a day
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself,
And see what that guy has to say.

He is the one who counts, never mind all the rest,
He's with you right to the end.
You've passed your most difficult, dangerous task,
If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world, down life's pathway of years,
And get pats on the back as you pass;
But your only reward will be heartache and tears,
If you've cheated the Man in the Glass.

W. C. Smith

Through the "Camera's Eye" we now invite you to see how
"The Man in the Glass" appeared during the 1960-61 school year.

Administration Is Carried on

SCHOOL BOARD: Ray Forbes, Superintendent; Mrs. Gaillard Heflin, D. E. Blakely, Secretary; Clarence McDermott, President; Leland Sunderland; Dean Fredericksen; H. W. Ouren. Not Present: Floyd Andersen, Treasurer.

SUPERINTENDENT RAY O. FORBES

A school system is a barometer indicating the cultural values of the community. A school system is an institution dedicated to the tremendous task of preparing you young people for living in an imperceptible future world, so fast is the rate of change. A school system and the opportunities it offers is society's greatest gift to you. This is a gift second only to God's gift of life itself. All that God and society ask in return is that you make the most of your heritage.

The dynamic world of tomorrow will be a world in which CHANGE and not stability will be the dominant factor. To live in such a rapidly changing world you will need all the advantages that education offers. Education is more than the acquisition of factual knowledge. True education is the development of a critical mind and the ability to think. True education fosters a thirst for knowledge and a continuous desire to learn. Learning is growth and a person becomes "grown up" when he is capable of handling his own education.

MAYOR KROGSTAD

Our student council, composed of each class president and a representative from all the classes with the exception of the freshman, is instrumental in the function of our high school system. This small-scale Congress, with the student mayor, Dick Krogstad, as presiding officer and principal L. S. Jamison as advisor, passes various resolutions concerning the students and the operation of their school. In addition to sponsoring dances and pep buses to out-of-town games, the council voted this year to require all students to lock their lockers after school hours, but their chief duty is to set up regulations concerning the prom.

In room number five, we find Mr. Hallbauer trying to teach a tired English class on Monday morning. Oh, those weekends!

"Salvite", or in English, "Hi", is a formal welcoming in Mrs. Smith's Latin classes. Along with Latin we find French classes practicing everything from "Je vous aime," or "I love you," to "Au revoir"—"Good Bye!"

On entering Mrs. Smith's room, one is met by a strange maze of cords, earphones, and a recording booth and cabinet. This is all a part of the new language laboratory which gives students extra help in learning better pronunciation.

Being instructors of literature and grammar of high school students can create many serious problems for Mr. Sunner and Mr. Hallbauer. We, the students, think you guys have did a swell job a'learning us all!

Future Freuds are being mass produced this year for the first time in the history of H.H.S. Psychology, a new addition to our curriculum, is being taught by Mr. Rasmussen. Highlighting the classroom activities of each class was a field trip to the Glenwood State School.

Most girls know that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. This accounts for the large enrollment in Miss Schack's Home Economics Classes.

While the girls are learning how to be good little housewives, the boys, under the direction of Mr. Harold Johnson, are learning how to do the odd jobs around the house.

This year the library, under the direction of Mr. Danese, qualified to become a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Every two months the library receives fifty new advanced science books from one high school and at the end of that time it is sent on to another. During the year fifty new books have been purchased by the school board to make our library more complete.

NELS MILLER

Head custodian, Nels Miller, has the full-time responsibility of keeping our three public school buildings in tip-top condition.

Making out the activity checks is only one of the many jobs of our office girls, Lavonne Grulke and Donna Roecker.

Getting ready to serve us another tasty meal are Mae Green, Laura Henriksen, Alice Kraetsch, Vernie Vinding, and Hattie Sornsen.

HOWARD PEDERSEN

Sidewalk sweeper, eraser duster, blackboard washer, floor mopper, and various other titles, belong to Howard Pedersen, better known to the students and faculty as "Curly."

BOB SEMROD

The student assistant, Bob Semrod, has the reputation of being Nel's right hand and Curly's left arm.

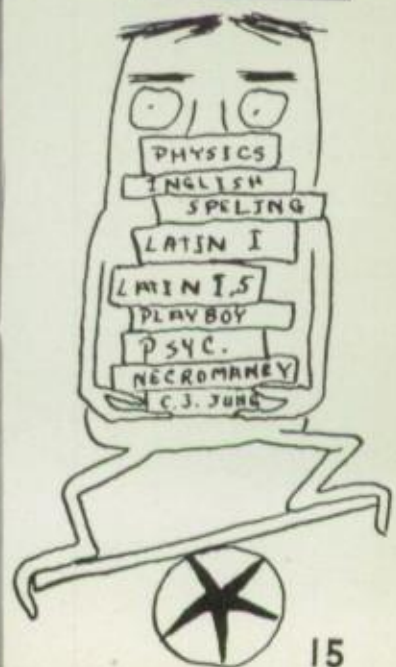

The transportation of our students has been entrusted to (STANDING) Reno Stoffer-son, Paul Grulke, Emory Hansen, Chris Nielsen, Jim Young, Carleton Norman, and Glendon Kuiper. (KNEELING) Charles Gearhart, Almer Hansen, Gail Schnack, and Harry Hansen. Not Present: Lee Grann.

National Honor Society is the oldest organization at Harlan High and becoming a member is the highest honor one can attain throughout his high school career. To become a member one must maintain at least a 2.75 average in academic subjects and also excel in the four precepts of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. This year seven seniors and four juniors were honored with this degree.

Ninety Club Rewards Extra Effort

These members of ninety club have been able to obtain a "B" average or better in all of their academic subjects for a semester. Along with their knowledge one feels certain that these students have gained a great deal of wisdom to last them throughout life. As Ruth Stout once said, "The greatest enemies of our way of life are ignorance without understanding and knowledge without wisdom." These students are to be congratulated for that extra effort which means the difference between mediocrity and excellence in academics.

At the spring picnic softball seemed to be the popular sport. The freshman played against the other three classes. The freshmen came out on top.

The Girls' Recreation Association is composed of girls who are interested in different fields of recreation. Their activities during this past year have consisted of playnights, decorating the school's Christmas tree, and a spring picnic.

The members of F.H.A. are kept busy attempting to become accomplished homemakers. The girls must have completed one year of home economics and be interested in better homemaking methods. This year's activities have included freshman initiation with a scavenger hunt, and a potluck Christmas party with games and singing for recreation.

H-Club Promotes Varied Activities

The new scale in the athletic department is attributed to the combined efforts of the members of H-Club. These athletes, who have lettered in at least one of the major sports: football, basketball, track, and wrestling, earned money for the scale by sponsoring dances and selling pop and candy during basketball games.

This organization, led by the cheerleaders, is the spark of enthusiasm throughout the school. This year, to create more school spirit, the members sold large Cyclone buttons, put up colorful signs in the halls, and presented ever-memorable pep skits.

Reorganized Hi-Y Excels

This organization, one of the most active in our school, is sponsored by Mr. Hallbauer. At the beginning of the year these boys rededicated themselves striving to further their spiritual values. This year's most important activities include sponsoring a Sweetheart Dance and presenting a Thanksgiving worship service for the student body.

This year the Future Farmers of America have been "going places and doing things" in an effort to improve school and community relationships.

The F.F.A. boys entered and showed their hogs and cattle at the Shelby County Fair and the judging teams participated in the Clay and Crawford County Fairs.

During the winter, the F.F.A. boys earned money for their treasury by selling ads for the F.F.A. calendars which were distributed to friends of the F.F.A. They sold tractor seats and conducted pigeon hunts for barn pigeons to be sold for research. These projects netted the Chapter about $350. Part of the money was used to entertain their parents, the faculty and school board at the annual F.F.A. banquet in February.

"Teaching can be rewarding." The members of F.T.A. have found this to be true. They gain experience by substitute teaching in the junior high and the lower grades at Park and Laurel. The highlight of the year was going to Grand View Junior College in Des Moines to join with other members of F.T.A.

Well, son, it's like this.

Story time is fun time according to Lois, who is substitute teaching for her mother.

Steve wishes that the little sixth graders wouldn't ask such difficult questions.

Thespians, a national honorary organization, was established to promote dramatics in high school and to develop an interest in stage work. In order to gain membership, one must have earned ten points by helping with a production, attending speech contest, or working in the dramatics department.

Tri-M Furthers Musical Interest

One of the most talented groups in Harlan High is the National Modern Music Masters Society. These students have shown above-average ability in vocal and instrumental music. In order to become a member of Tri-M one must serve as an apprentice for a given time, during which they are required to perform in a group ensemble and take a written exam on the constitution and bylaws of this society.

A new club at H. H. S. this year is "Le Cercle Français," made up of first and second year French students who wish to join. At the first of the year this active club elected officers and purchased pins with a French design. At their regular meetings the program usually included a movie about some interesting phase of France. At Christmas time a joint party was held with the Junior Classical League. The highlight of the year was the French meal prepared, served, and enjoyed by "les jeunes filles et les garcons."

This year the former Latin Club of H. H. S., made up of students who are presently taking Latin or have completed two years, was made a part of the national Junior Classical League. The "Camera's Eye" caught the H. H. S. Marching Band diligently practicing every morning at Merrill Field during the football season.

No football game would be complete without the playing of "The Victory March" whenever the Cyclones crossed the goal for that extra touchdown.

The new uniforms were a much needed improvement for the band and added color and sparkle to their half-time activities.

The band made several field trips this year including one to Clarinda—but we are glad to say that all members made it back!

One of the more active groups in any music department is the concert band, and ours is no exception. Immediately following the football season, the band changes its tune from bright, snappy marches to "Boogie and Bach."

Though small in number, many talented individuals make up the concert band. Three members of the Harlan band, Carole Richards; first chair oboe, Pat McLaughlin and Jean Sisson; both first chair clarinet, attended the Northwest Iowa Band Festival held in Cherokee. Usually this festival is restricted to bands in northwestern Iowa, but by special invitation, Harlan was asked to send these three tudents. The Quad-County festival, which is the maior instrumental program of this area was attended by 35 members of the Harlan Band.

The goal of any band is, of course, state music contest. This year a large group contest was held in Jefferson, April 22. The competition at any contest is difficult and rugged, especially on one's nerves. Tension is high, talent is UNLIMITED, but these are all things that one encounters at a contest. All are equally important and help to develop the type of organization any school is proud to have represent them.

"Presenting the Harlan High School Concert Choir." This organization was indeed a credit to the school and the students it represented.

Besides the concerts given for the public, the choir entertained the student body on two separate occasions along with the other respective groups of the vocal department.

The concert choir is composed of members from all classes with the exception of the Freshmen, who have formed a chorus of their own.

The high-light of the entire year was the State Music Contest, April 22. The chorus came through with flying colors and brought home a I rating.

Nine seniors realized their football ambition by winning the Midwest Conference Championship. What was tabbed as a year of rebuilding for the Cyclones became a year of winning.

The first and the last games of the season became the biggest tests of the year. The opening contest with Red Oak ended in a 7-6 loss of the season for the Hawkeye Eight Champs. The last game also ended in a win for our H. H. S. eleven as they defeated the Denison Monarchs 6-0.

The one loss of the season was at the hands of the Atlantic Trojans 14-7. A tie at Jefferson was the only other mar for the Cyclones' season.

The Cyclones were not a quick-striking type of ball club. They scored only 127 points in winning seven, losing one, and tying one.

SECOND ROW: Don Gunderson; Ted Williams.

The most outstanding characteristic of the type of football played by this year's football team was the ability to stop the opposition both on the ground and in the air. A total of 41 points were scored against this "Sterling" defense which was good enough to rank as one of the best in the State.

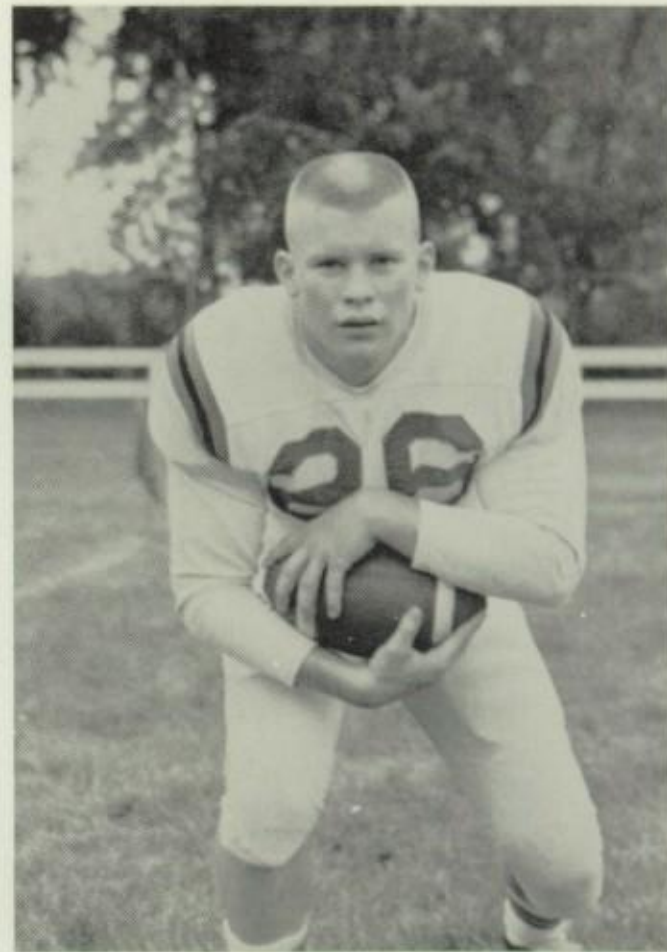

Three seniors entered the scoring column for the Cyclones. Chuck Stanley, fullback, led the champions with 62 points on ten touchdowns and two extra points. Bill Beauchamp kicked thirteen PAT's and Max Brodersen intercepted a Sac City pass for his only six points.

Many honors were received by the senior Cyclones. Three of these were first team All-Conference choices while two more represented H. H. S. on the All-Conference second team. Two members were selected to All-State teams and three more were given All-State honorable mention. Several team members were honored when the annual Southwest Iowa Honor Teams were picked. One of these senior players also received All-American honorable mention.

Nine wins and twelve losses represent the best efforts of the Cyclone cagers for the '60-'61 season. This record was adequate enough to securely grasp a fourth place finish in the Conference standings.

Coach Ted Williams' starting five, although losing three more than they won, scored 1,213 points for the season, or three more than their opponents' total. More points were scored against Audubon; 83, than any other, and Carroll scored the most against the Cyclones. The cagers' average per game was 57.75 while the opposition managed to average only 57.60.

Max Brodersen led all scorers with 338 points and was chosen to the All-Conference first team, making a grand slam in basketball and football.

Prominence as a Major Sport

Minutes before the battle the varsity wrestlers meet their opponents.

Improvement, improvement, improvement. This one word says all as far as wrestling is concerned at H. H. S. In the three first seasons of the new sport, the last season ranks first in records, accomplishments, and new-born interest. Two outstanding representatives for the Cyclones became Southwest Iowa wrestling leaders. These two were Don McDermott and Tom Paulsen. Jerry Myrtue and Gary Klindt followed closely behind these two with third place finishes in district competition. Tom Paulsen finished third in the State finals and Don McDermott won the heavyweight division of the A.A.U. wrestling meet at Ames. Co-Captains for this year's squad were Don McDermott and Jerry Myrtue.

With the coming of spring comes the sound of "batter up," and baseball officially starts. Returning from last year's Cyclone squad are nine experienced veterans who expect to better the previous team's nine win and nine loss season.

Senior lettermen returning are Max Brodersen, Lee Moran, and Chuck Stanley, who are expected to fill three positions and, with the added strength of the six junior lettermen, the Cyclones can fill every position with ability and experience. Coaching these ball players will be Mr. Williams. This combination is sure to lead the Cyclones to another successful baseball season.

The 'A' squad cheerleaders this year consisted of all seniors. Besides cheering at the home and out-of-town games, these girls also planned pep skits, made pep and football signs, victory hoops, and honored the senior boys who participated in the football and basketball seasons. To become a cheerleader, the girls had to try out in front of teachers, the pep club president, and the sponsor. All the cheerleaders were chosen for their spirit, attitude, actions, and ability to lead yells. It only takes one year on 'A' squad to earn a letter.

Mayor candidates shake hands before they begin campaigning for office.

An exciting campaign was conducted by Dick Krogstad and Larry Baker, the two candidates running for the school's highest office. On the final day, the votes were cast and Dick was officially elected mayor of H. H. S.

First Place—"We'll Get 'Em in the End."

Although there was some doubt as to the nature of this float while under construction, it turned out well and took first place for the senior class.

Second Place—"Swat Ida."

Miss Hendersen and her crew put in many long hours of preparation and turned out another Pep Club original. This year's entry captured them third prize.

The sophomores put their heads together and, after hours of concentration and hard work, designed a float which won them second prize.

Third Place—"Dial V for Victory."

Royalty Adds Spice to Festivities

The happy king and queen march quickly up the center aisle.

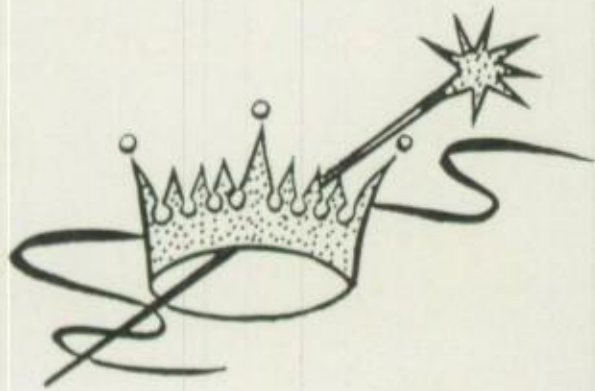

Feminine royalty arrive at football game.

The student body elected Rita Noehren and Chuck Stanley to reign over the 1960 Homecoming parade, game, and dance. The royal couple's attendants were Jean More, Nancy Miller, Lee Moran, and Bill Beauchamp.

As Jill Sievers and Betty Ann Simonsen waved their magic wands, the three flower buds opened slowly and the royal party was revealed. The crown bearers were Donald Norgaard and Karen McCormack.

Juniors Agree "I Remember Mama"

"For the butcher, for Katrin's shoes . . ."

A huge audience of over 750 people sat spellbound as a lovely young girl named Katrin began reading from her diary the story of her delightful family and their life together in a strange new country. Despite the fact that Mama found American life much different than life in Norway, she led her little troupe through poverty, sickness, and family differences on to a life of love and happiness.

"You vant I shoot sing to you?"

"And do you know vat he did?"

"I Remember Mama" was a spectacular show because of the combined efforts of many people. Its large cast consisted of 24 high school students, several of whom spent weeks perfecting a Norwegian accent, and a cat. Because of the fact that the play took place on four different stages, the construction committee had a difficult job fixing the sets and the light crew was kept busy following the quick changes from one set to another. Beautiful costumes made of velvet, silk, and other lovely material, also boasted hours of careful work.

"A Murder Has Been Arranged"

"Let's drink a toast to Sir Charles Jasper."

For one suspense filled evening, the high school auditorium was transformed into the huge, empty St. James Theater where Sir Charles Jasper was holding his 40th birthday party. After the untimely murder of Sir Charles, a dumb woman walked across the stage and then spoke to herald the coming of a ghost. Within a few minutes, Sir Charles' ghost made its way through the theater to the stage, drew a confession from the killer, and quickly disappeared.

"On his body will rise the ghost of the murdered!"

"There's something very funny about this place."

"I won't, I won't, I won't!"

Take a Look Behind the Scenes

As the audience watches a play, they see only the finished product of many hours of tedious work and give credit to only those few people whom they see performing on stage. However, the camera's eye has now focused on those hard-working students who perform behind the scenes making costumes, applying make-up, building the set, and operating the lights. The dramatics department salutes these tireless workers who make the productions possible.

How do we look?

This does create a problem.

Steady now!

Do you think we will ever finish?

Get it snapped.

Come on, Joyce, smile.

Students Earn Three 1's at State

"It's a pretty good zoo," said young Gerald Magroo.

W-A-T-E-R, it has a name!

I have 'et to figure out what has become of her.

One of the few dramatic activities which takes individual effort, rather than teamwork, is speech contest. Three out of Harlan's eleven entries received a 1 rating at the finals in Atlantic. These talented young ladies, Ann Boysen—Interpretive Reading (poetry), Anne Bauerle—Dramatic Declamation, and Donna Rihner—Humorous Declamation, are pictured above presenting their winning entries.

Fun and Frolic in "Winter Wonderland"

One, two, three slide.

No Christmas season would be complete without the annual "Snowball" and the camera was on hand to capture all the highlights of that special evening. Students, alumni, and faculty crowded the floor and whirled to the music of Earl Russel while the "Winter Wonderland" scenery whizzed by them.

"Are you sure this is the Inaugural Ball?"

While the cat's away, the mice will play.

"I saw mommy kissing Santa Claus!"

Sweethearts Love Mr. Cupid

David Boettger crowns first Hi-Y Sweetheart, Linda Doonan.

A sparkling new addition to Harlan High's highlife this year was the first annual Hi-Y Sweetheart Dance. One girl from each class was nominated and, as the students entered the gym for the dance, they were asked to vote for the candidate of their choice. The four lovely candidates were: freshman—Lois Blum, sophomore—Sandy Christensen, junior—Linda Doonan, and senior—Linda Chambers. During the dance, Linda Doonan was crowned Hi-Y Sweetheart of 1961.

To give the boys a chance, the Pep Club held a "Mr. Cupid" contest at their valentine dance. Delmar Conrad was chosen to represent the freshman class; Jim Myrtue, the sophomore class; Lynn Cadwell, the junior class; and Don Stowe, the senior class. Ballots were cast during the pep assembly and, at the dance that evening, Don Stowe was presented a red banner displaying his new title, "Mr. Cupid."

The third annual Cyclone Relays was held at Merrill Field again this year despite the weatherman's attempt to spoil the plans. When the rain let up somewhat, three shiny sports cars circled the track and brought Queen Nancy Miller and her attendants, Karen Knudson and Lynn Baron, to the grandstand where Superintendent Forbes crowned the queen and presented her with a dozen roses. After the meet students and faculty alike flocked to the high school gym for the "Cinder Hop."

Interested spectators watch intently as Mr. Forbes crowns Nancy.

Sixty-eight Receive Awards

Background of speakers table is symbolic of theme.

On May 3 the Achievement Awards Banquet, sponsored by the Harlan Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, and the Lions Club, was held in honor of 68 juniors and seniors. After the supper and entertainment, each student was presented a blazer emblem for his outstanding work in extracurricular activities. The theme chosen for this occasion was "The Torch of Learning Lights the Road of Freedom."

Later in the evening the crowd returned to dance to the music of Earl Russell until midnight.

As the morning hours approached, the sleepy-eyed students watched a movie entitled "East of Eden" at the drive-in and attended an early morning breakfast served by the Junior mothers at the Country Club.

Seniors Frolic at Lake View

Don't forget your lunch!

Brrr—that water's cold!

Skip day is one time when the almighty seniors let down their hair, dress in old sloppy clothes, and act like freshmen once again. The cloudiest morning of the entire spring saw just such a group loading onto a Harlan school bus which headed toward Lake View.

Upon arrival the group took a quick hike around the grounds and then immediately decided it was time to eat. A few enterprising seniors even demonstrated a hidden talent and built a fire over which to cook their lunch and just plain keep warm.

A softball game was next on the agenda, so by 3 o'clock the weary gang was more than ready to call it a day. However, they managed to stop at a root beer stand and have more to eat before journeying home.

Cooking is serious business for men.

Coach McDermott instructs his female lineup.

Seventy-six End High School Careers

Valedictorian, Don McDermott, receives his diploma from his father.

"Take the world as you find it, but leave it better" was the motto of 76 seniors who made their final appearances as a class during graduation week.

Baccalaureate Services were held in the auditorium on May 21. Rev. Earnest C. Biller gave a sermon entitled "The Road Ahead."

The following Thursday evening, families and friends gathered in the gymnasium for commencement. Each senior girl wore a red rose, the class flower, on her gown. Dr. Walter K. Beggs addressed the group and the stately seniors then received their diplomas.

Class day was a day filled with mixed emotions, for it marked both a beginning and an end for those students.

Senior president, Chuck Stanley, represents his classmates in a farewell address.

Seniors appear for the last time as students of H.H.S.

Hi-Y Award

Harlan High School confers various honors on its deserving students throughout the year. However, none can match the awards which are presented to the outstanding seniors on class day.

The two outstanding scholars of the senior class are presented with the honors of valedictorian and salutatorian. However, this year, for the first time in the history of the school, there were two students tied with four-point averages for valedictorian, so no salutatorian award was given.

The Safe Driving Award is presented to the senior with the best driving habits in memory of Ralph Garthwaite.

Because Hi-Y plays an important part in the life of high school boys, the Hi-Y Award was created to recognize an outstanding member of that club for his devotion and service.

The Dayle Ruffcorn Scholarship is presented to a senior boy on the basis of scholarship and character.

The Arion Music Award, given by the parents of Charlene Sohn in her memory, goes to the boy or girl who is most outstanding in the field of music.

The Louis Art Award is given to the student who does superior art work, and the Whitney Trophy is presented to the outstanding athlete.

Six Named to Ha-Lo Hall of Fame

BRIAN POE

JERRY MYRTUE

PAT MARTINDALE

The Ha-Lo Hall of Fame was created three years ago to give credit to students who are active behind the scenes, but would not otherwise gain recognition.

Brian Poe was the first student to be given such an award this year. Brian, a senior, was recognized for his efforts on the journalism staff, for his work as student manager of the basketball team during his four years in high school, and for his co-operation with his fellow students and teachers.

Jerry Myrtue, a junior, was the next to be taken into the Ha-Lo Hall of Fame. Jerry was rewarded for the tireless hours he spent doing art work, heading publicity committees, and holding the office of junior class president.

Pat Martindale, a junior, was honored because of her efforts in the junior class play and her service to the administration of the school.

Nancy Stofferson, another junior, was recognized for her work as student director of the junior class play, as point secretary for the band, and as an officer and member of numerous other organizations.

Johnadee McClain, a senior, was rewarded for the many hours she spent as librarian, for her art work on the journalism staff, and for her participation on various committees for the class plays.

Jeannie Sisson, the only sophomore ever to be elected to the Ha-Lo Hall of Fame, was recognized for her participation and enthusiasm in various activities, especially music.

The other two boys pictured on this page are those chosen by the American Legion and Auxiliary to represent Harlan at Boys' State.

The "Camera's Eye" and our eyes are drooping—almost shut.

The time and energy expended in compiling this pictorial review of our school year has been tremendous. But if somehow this yearbook helps rekindle fond memories of your 1960-61 school year, this effort will be amply rewarded.

Our heart-felt "thanks" to all those responsible for the drafting and execution of this HARPOON . . .

To our gallant staff with their effervescent spring of never-ending ideas . . .

To Jim Noble and Fritz Logeland for their long hours struggling for our cause in the darkroom . . .

To our advisor, Mr. Terwilliger, whose unlimited patience finally found its limit . . .

To those many unknown without whom this yearbook could not have been possible.
